15 SHEEP, 90 TONS OF HAY ARE LOST IN BLAZE

Fifteen sheep perished and 90 tons of hay were burned when fire destroyed a barn and pig sty Monday night on the farm of Harry Rodrock, East Berlin R. 1.

The sheep were pasturing near the barn when a dog frightened them and they charged into the flaming barn before spectators could divert them.

East Berlin firemen stood by all night because of danger created by smoldering hay. The cause of the fire is unknown.

George Anderson, East Berlin R. 1, owner of the hay, estimated his loss at $2,500.

Call Three Companies

Rodrock, who drives an automobile carrier for Martin L. Speck, Dillsburg, was in Cleveland, O., on his way home from there. Speck said, Mrs. Rodrock and two small children were at home and discovered the blaze.

The Adams county farm is located near Two Churches, about five miles northwest of East Berlin along the East Berlin-Bragtown highway.

The barn measured 60 by 50 feet and the sty was 20 by 12 feet. Both were frame buildings. No other buildings were endangered.

Liberty Fire Co., East Berlin, battled the fire with a pumper and a 1,000-gallon water tanker. Franklinton Fire company and Citizens Hose Company, Dillsburg, were summoned but did not go into action.

Rodrock bought the farm from Leo Baker about two years ago.

73 IN FAVOR OF NEW TAX PLAN; WORLEY AGAINST

Assemblyman Francis Worley this morning said he plans to vote against Governor Leader's income tax proposal "on the basis of the three hearings held in the county, talks and communications."

"I am of the opinion that the thinking of the citizens of Adams County is overwhelmingly against Governor Leader's wage and income taxes. I am basing my conclusion on the overall picture after three hearings, telephone conversations, mail and private interviews. I've always been against the tax as unfair to farmers and small businesses and to persons who have invested their savings and are living from rents," Worley said.

"Opinions at the first two hearings where members of both parties attended were unanimously against the new taxes and Monday night's crowd was divided."

73 Voice Approval
Monday night, at the last of the three meetings, held at the Court House the assemblyman found himself faced with an audience that was preponderantly Democrat, and a vote, called for by one of the members of the audience, showed 73 of the 76 favor the governor's proposals.

County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk was among those attending the meeting, and spoke in favor of the Leader proposals. John D. Lipsey Jr., who was the Democratic nominee for assemblyman, Superintendent of Highways Wilbur V. Redding, Gilbert Lupp, head of the Young Democrats, Mrs. Bertha Ballard, head of the Democratic Women's Club, Charles W. Hash, Mrs. Helen Bell, Harold Roberts and others also approved the new tax plan.

Call For Votes
Klunk and others asked Worley his opinions and were told that the assemblyman had called the meeting to find out the opinions of his constituents.

Several called for a vote. Melvin Burton asked those favoring the income tax to rise and all but three in the audience stood up.

After 40 minutes of the meeting Assemblyman Worley said he had a call from Harrisburg and had to attend the legislative meeting there. He said today he reached Harrisburg Monday night as a Democratic caucus ended and the House reconvened.

Seek Toll-Free Lincoln Highway Across State

HARRISBURG (AP)—A proposal seeking immediate improvement of U.S. 30 as a four-lane toll-free highway through Pennsylvania was ready for House floor consideration today after being passed by the Rules Committee.

Sponsored by seven Democrats the resolution would ask the highway secretary to advance plans to the end that the highway "may form a real part of the vital defense system of transcontinental military highways."

U.S. 30 runs across southern Pennsylvania between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia through historic Gettysburg. It is two, three and four lanes wide.

The proposal would seek widening, straightening and complete renovation of the road "with all the celerity consistent with proper highway improvement practices."

President Says Big 4 Made No Secret Pacts In Geneva; Urges "Prayerful Patience"

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told the nation last night a spark of world peace was ignited at the Big Four conference. But he said much patience and sacrifice and "some giving on each side" will be needed to keep that spark alive.

Winding up a radio-TV report on last week's talks—which, he said, included no secret agreements—the President declared:

"I believe that only with prayerful patience, intelligence, courage and tolerance—never forgetting vigilance and prudence—can we keep alive the spark ignited at Geneva. . . .

"We, all of us, individually and as a people, have possibly the most difficult assignment of our nation's history. Likewise, we have the most shining opportunity ever possessed by Americans. May these truths inspire us, never dismay us."

Big Test In October
He said the "acid test" of the Geneva talks will come next October, when the Big Four foreign ministers meet to seek specific agreements on some of the broad

SAYS U.S. GREW BY ENTERPRISE, COMPETITION

"The United States has six per cent of the population of the world, 100 years ago it had 15 per cent of the world's wealth, today it has over 50 per cent of the wealth of the world," Arch McCure, Shiremans-town, vice president of the Central Pennsylvania chapter of Americans for The Competitive Enterprise System, told the local Rotary Club Monday evening at its meeting in the YWCA.

"Our success has been due to our system of competitive enterprise," he added, "and is the greatest proof that our system works. You may wonder why, when our system is working so well, when we are more prosperous than ever before, one should worry about it, and spend time and effort to preserve it? You may think that the advantages of our system are so obvious that there could be no change.

"But that is where the problem lies. So few know what our system is, or what causes our prosperity. Few school children receive any training in economics; few college students take economics courses. In a sense we are raising a generation that has no idea what we have, or how we got that way. And it is not only important that we know ourselves what makes us tick so well, we have now a position of world leadership such as we have never had before and so we have the challenge to tell the world of our system in such a way that it too can benefit."

Cites Changes Through Years
"Our competitive enterprise system is not only effective, but capable of change almost unnoticed, as we can observe by studying the last 100 years. In 1856 we were going through an owner-manager stage, in which four out of five owned their own businesses—generally farms. By the 1870s to '90s we had the captains of industry period. In the 1920s we had the corporate investor, the legal, financial wizards who set up great empires of holding companies.

"Today we are in what might be called the professional management stage. Generally the people running our businesses do not own much of it, nor can they ever hope to own too much of it, because of the tremendous investment required. They are hired to manage and do a good job of it."

Sees Encroachments
"Tomorrow, well no one knows what phase we will be in, but we can see today encroachments on the competitive system of enterprise. Taxes are up to more than 33 per cent of total income. Federal regulations become more stringent. And if our coming generation does not know the advantages of free enterprise, then no one can tell that direction our nation will take.

"Americans for Competitive Enterprise is providing a program of education, it has courses for schools, workshops for teachers, it seeks to make persons so intoxicated, as it (Continued On Page 2)

Mrs. W. Bertha Heller, 69, who with her husband, M. J. Heller, Gardners R. 2, formerly operated the Bendersville hotel and restaurant, died Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Carlisle Hospital.

LINCOLN PLAY WELL RECEIVED AT TOTEM POLE

"Abe Lincoln in Illinois" Robert Sherwood's dramatic document from history, was well received by a near-capacity audience at the Totem Pole Playhouse in Caledonia Park Monday night.

The play continues through Saturday night this week with a matinee scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

In an early scene, Paul Stevens as Lincoln remarked, "I'm scared, scared of people. I'm afraid they'll kill me." This would seem prophetic, for it was just 80 years ago that this president met death at the hands of an assassin as he watched a play from his box in Ford's Theater, Washington.

There were a number of children in the audience Monday night. They saw Lincoln as a young man whose destiny was cast in moving capules of love, friendship, disappointment and fear. They witnessed the dramatization of a part of the life of The Great Emancipator who figured so greatly in the shaping of this historic country.

Use Revolving Stage
The play has been conceived, produced and directed with professional skill by a talented summer stock company. The thirty-two foot revolving stage facilities quick changes of scenery so essential his production which requires numerous stage settings.

A large cast accelerated the action of the play and the career of Lincoln to the obvious satisfaction of the audience.

Miss Elise Scharf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Herr's Ridge, plays the part of a maid. She is a graduate of Gettysburg High School, where she won the "Best Thespian Award" for her acting and interest in drama. She has also worked with the Gettysburg Little Theater Group. In the fall she will enroll as a freshman at the Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio.

TEMPERATURE IN 90'S AGAIN

After a one-day respite, 90-degree heat returned here Monday for the 19th day this month. The thermometer was heading into the 90's again today and the forecast for Wednesday says "fair and continued warm."

Sunday's light showers kept the temperature down to 84 degrees but Monday's high was 92 degrees and the mid-nineties may be reached today.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More hot weather is ahead for Pennsylvania.

The weatherman warned today "a rising trend in temperature and humidity for the next two days is indicated."

Temperatures dropped to the low 70s generally across the Keystone State during the night, with even lower readings in the mountain and lake sections.

But more heat is on the way. The weather station in Philadelphia predicted temperatures in the 90s for the next two—and maybe three—days.

So far this month there have been 17 days on which temperatures climbed into the 90s at Philadelphia, and the mercury reached a scalding 100 last week.

There's a chance of scattered showers or thunderstorms tomorrow night in the mountain sections, and the possibility of scattered rain on Thursday the bureau said. Otherwise—it will remain just plain hot.

The Adams County School Board meeting Monday evening at the Court House gave approval to plans to enlarge the vocational agriculture facilities at Biglerville High School and named a second speech correctionist for the county.

Miss Joan Patricia Simmons, Indiana, Pa., was selected to fill the $4,200 per year post. Her salary is the same as that set for the county's first speech correctionist, selected last month, Miss Jennie L. Blatchford, Oak Knoll, Pa.

The two young women will begin their duties "about the middle of August," County Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle told the county board.

First Ever In County
Miss Simmons, 24, a graduate of Indiana State Teachers College, taught for the last two years at Punxsutawney, serving part time as a speech correctionist and part time as an English teacher. She currently is doing graduate work at Pennsylvania State University. Riegle said both Miss Simmons and Miss Blatchford were highly recommended for the posts here. They will become the first speech correctionists ever employed by the county. Authorization to the posts was given by school directors of the county at a special convention last spring.

Superintendent Riegle told the county board that the Upper Adams Joint School system is planning to add to and renovate the present vocational agriculture room at the Biglerville High School and that with completion of the work there will be 1,800 square feet of floor space for the shop and classroom. With the steadily increasing enrollment in the vo-ag course, the present facilities are becoming extremely crowded, Riegle said.

Three transportation contracts were given the county board approval.

Approve Reports
The transportation contract between M. T. Walter and the Upper Adams Joint School System calls for payment of $9.42 per day; the one between Harry Lerew and the Upper Adams system, $6 per day, and the one between Guy W. Seifert and the Fairfield Joint School System, $10 per day.

Four annual financial reports were approved.

The financial report for Conewago Jointure shows that for the year ending July 4, the district had spent $178,837.19, leaving it with a balance of $254.80. Income for the year included a balance from 1954 of $182.71; $19,274.07 from Abbotstown; $2,252.17 from Conewago Independent; $34,569.96 from East Berlin; $55,922.90 from Paradise Twp.; $48,886.02 from Reading Twp.; $2,119.47 from the state; $14,844.02 from tuition; $828.42 from other supplies and $114.24 from auditium rental and other sources.

Other Reports Received
Expenses on the part of Conewago jointure included $4,057.75 for general control, $125,994.66 for instructional service, $23,885.40 for auxiliary agencies, $10,142.79 for operation of plant, $9,294.93 for maintenance of plant, $9,294.93 for charges and $1,147 capital outlay.

Germany Township's financial report showed receipts of $60,823.93 and expenditures of $54,617 leaving it with a balance of $6,206.93.

The Upper Adams Joint System spent $367,490.58 during the year ending July 4, according to its (Continued On Page 6)

73 IN FAVOR OF NEW TAX PLAN; WORLEY AGAINST

Assemblyman Francis Worley this morning said he plans to vote against Governor Leader's income tax proposal "on the basis of the three hearings held in the county, talks and communications."

"I am of the opinion that the thinking of the citizens of Adams County is overwhelmingly against Governor Leader's wage and income taxes. I am basing my conclusion on the overall picture after three hearings, telephone conversations, mail and private interviews. I've always been against the tax as unfair to farmers and small businesses and to persons who have invested their savings and are living from rents," Worley said.

"Opinions at the first two hearings where members of both parties attended were unanimously against the new taxes and Monday night's crowd was divided."

73 Voice Approval

Monday night, at the last of the three meetings, held at the Court House the assemblyman found himself faced with an audience that was preponderantly Democrat, and a vote, called for by one of the members of the audience, showed 73 of the 76 favor the governor's proposals.

County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk was among those attending the meeting, and spoke in favor of the Leader proposals. John D. Lippy Jr., who was the Democratic nominee for assemblyman, Superintendent of Highways Wilbur V. Redding, Gilbert Lupp, head of the Young Democrats, Mrs. Bertha Ballard, head of the Democratic Women's Club, Charles W. Hash, Mrs. Helen Bell, Harold Roberts and others also approved the new tax plan.

Call For Vote

Klunk and others asked Worley his opinions and were told that the assemblyman had called the meeting to find out the opinions of his constituents.

Several called for a vote. Melvin Burton asked those favoring the income tax to rise and all but three in the audience stood up.

After 40 minutes of the meeting Assemblyman Worley said he had a call from Harrisburg and had to attend the legislative meeting there. He said today he reached Harrisburg Monday night as a Democratic caucus ended and the House reconvened.

Assemblyman Francis Worley this morning said he plans to vote against Governor Leader's income tax proposal "on the basis of the three hearings held in the county, talks and communications."

"I am of the opinion that the thinking of the citizens of Adams County is overwhelmingly against Governor Leader's wage and income taxes. I am basing my conclusion on the overall picture after three hearings, telephone conversations, mail and private interviews. I've always been against the tax as unfair to farmers and small businesses and to persons who have invested their savings and are living from rents," Worley said.

"Opinions at the first two hearings where members of both parties attended were unanimously against the new taxes and Monday night's crowd was divided."

73 Voice Approval

Monday night, at the last of the three meetings, held at the Court House the assemblyman found himself faced with an audience that was preponderantly Democrat, and a vote, called for by one of the members of the audience, showed 73 of the 76 favor the governor's proposals.

County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk was among those attending the meeting, and spoke in favor of the Leader proposals. John D. Lippy Jr., who was the Democratic nominee for assemblyman, Superintendent of Highways Wilbur V. Redding, Gilbert Lupp, head of the Young Democrats, Mrs. Bertha Ballard, head of the Democratic Women's Club, Charles W. Hash, Mrs. Helen Bell, Harold Roberts and others also approved the new tax plan.

Call For Vote

Klunk and others asked Worley his opinions and were told that the assemblyman had called the meeting to find out the opinions of his constituents.

Several called for a vote. Melvin Burton asked those favoring the income tax to rise and all but three in the audience stood up.

After 40 minutes of the meeting Assemblyman Worley said he had a call from Harrisburg and had to attend the legislative meeting there. He said today he reached Harrisburg Monday night as a Democratic caucus ended and the House reconvened.

SAYS U.S. GREW BY ENTERPRISE, COMPETITION

"The United States has six per cent of the population of the world. 100 years ago it had 15 per cent of the world's wealth, today it has over 50 per cent of the wealth of the world," Arch McClure, Shiremans-town, vice president of the Central Pennsylvania chapter of Americans for The Competitive Enterprise System, told the local Rotary Club Monday evening at its meeting in the YWCA.

"Our success has been due to our system of competitive enterprise," he added, "and is the greatest proof that our system works. You may wonder why, when our system is working so well, when we are more prosperous than ever before, one should worry about it, and spend time and effort to preserve it? You may think that the advantages of our system are so obvious that there could be no change.

"But that is where the problem lies. So few know what our system is, or what causes our prosperity. Few school children receive any training in economics; few college students take economics courses. In a sense we are raising a generation that has no idea what we have, or how we got that way. And it is not only important that we know ourselves what makes us tick so well, we have now a position of world leadership such as we have never had before and so we have the challenge to tell the world of our system in such a way that it too can benefit."

Cites Changes Through Years

"Our competitive enterprise system is not only effective, but capable of change almost unnoticed, as we can observe by studying the last 100 years. In 1854 we were going through an owner-manager stage, in which four out of five owned their own businesses—generally farms. By the 1870s to 90s we had the captains of industry period. In the 1920s we had the corporate investor, the legal, financial wizards who set up great empires of holding companies.

"Today we are in what might be called the professional management stage. Generally the people running our businesses do not own much of it, nor can they ever hope to own too much of it, because of the tremendous investment required. They are hired to manage and do a good job of it."

Sees Encroachments

"Tomorrow, well no one knows what phase we will be in, but we can see today encroachments on the competitive system of enterprise. Taxes are up to more than 33 per cent of total income. Federal regulations become more stringent. And if our coming generation does not know the advantages of free enterprise, then no one can tell what direction our nation will take.

"Americans for Competitive Enterprise is providing a program of education, it has courses for schools, workshops for teachers, it seeks to make persons so intoxicated, as it (Continued On Page 2)

President Says Big 4 Made No Secret Pacts In Geneva; Urges "Prayerful Patience"

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told the nation last night a spark of world peace was ignited at the Big Four conference. But he said much patience and sacrifice and "some giving on each side" will be needed to keep that spark alive.

Winding up a radio-TV report on last week's talks—which, he said, included no secret agreements—the President declared:

"I believe that only with prayerful patience, intelligence, courage and tolerance—never forgetting vigilance and prudence—can we keep alive the spark ignited at Geneva."

"We, all of us, individually and as a people, have possibly the most difficult assignment of our nation's history. Likewise, we have the most shining opportunity ever possessed by Americans. May these truths inspire us, never dismay us."

Big Test In October

He said the "acid test" of the Geneva talks will come next October, when the Big Four foreign ministers meet to seek specific agreements on some of the broad problems taken up by their chiefs.

"Then is when reconciliation and some giving on each side will be definitely necessary," he said.

At another point, he said:

"Now, for myself, I do not believe the obstacles lying ahead on the road to a secure and just peace. . . . I do not blink at the fact that all of us must continue to sacrifice for what we believe to be best for the safety of ourselves and for the preservation of the things in which we believe."

People Want Peace

"But I do know the people of the world want peace.

"Moreover, every other individual who was at Geneva likewise felt this longing of mankind. . . ."

The President spoke, glancing occasionally at hand-written notes, from his oval office in the White House. In this first direct report to the nation in the Geneva series, he listed four main results of his talks with the Russians, British and French chiefs of government.

1. "A sharpened realization by will go to any length, consistent with our concepts of decency, justice and right, to obtain peace. For (Continued On Page 2)

MRS. HELLER, FORMER HOTEL OPERATOR, DIES

Mrs. W. Bertha Heller, 69, who with her husband, M. J. Heller, Gardners R. 2, formerly operated the Bendersville hotel and restaurant, died Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Carlisle Hospital. A complication of diseases caused death after an illness of two years.

Mrs. Heller was born in this county and was a daughter of the late Solomon and Mary (Starn) Starn. She and her husband operated the Bendersville hotel for about 16 years a number of years ago. Then they moved to Laurel, near Pine Grove, where they operated a store and restaurant until the buildings had to be removed because of a highway re-location. Then they built their present home along that road.

The deceased was a member of the Bendersville Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband, two children: Russell Heller and Mrs. Wilmer Wilson, both of Gardners R. 2; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. There are a brother, Charles C. Starn, and a sister, Mrs. Leah Hinkle, both of Gardners R. 2.

Funeral services Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Dugan Funeral Home in Bendersville with her pastor, the Rev. Eugene Steiner, officiating. Interment in the Bendersville Cemetery. Friends may call at the Dugan Funeral Home Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

LINCOLN PLAY WELL RECEIVED AT TOTEM POLE

"Abe Lincoln in Illinois" Robert Sherwood's dramatic document from history, was well received by a near-capacity audience at the Totem Pole Playhouse in Caledonia Park Monday night.

The play continues through Saturday night this week with a matinee scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

In an early scene, Paul Stevens as Lincoln remarked, "I'm scared, scared of people. I'm afraid they'll kill me." This would seem prophetic, for it was just 90 years ago that this president met death at the hands of an assassin as he watched a play from his box in Ford's Theater, Washington.

There were a number of children in the audience Monday night. They saw Lincoln as a young man whose destiny was cast in moving capules of love, friendship, disappointment and fear. They witnessed the dramatization of a part of the life of The Great Emancipator who figured so greatly in the shaping of this historic country.

Use Revolving Stage

The play has been conceived, produced and directed with professional skill by a talented summer stock company. The thirty-two foot revolving stage facilities quick changes of scenery so essential in production which requires numerous stage settings.

A large cast accelerated the action of the play and the career of Lincoln to the obvious satisfaction of the audience.

Miss Elise Scharf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Herr's Ridge, plays the part of a maid. She is a graduate of Gettysburg High School, where she won the "Best Thespian Award" for her acting and interest in drama. She has also worked with the Gettysburg Little Theater Group. In the fall she will enroll as a freshman at the Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio.

After a one-day respite, 90-degree heat returned here Monday for the 19th day this month. The thermometer was heading into the 90's again today and the forecast for Wednesday says "fair and continued warm."

Sunday's light showers kept the temperature down to 84 degrees but Monday's high was 92 degrees and the mid-nineties may be reached today.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More hot weather is ahead for Pennsylvania.

The weatherman warned today "a rising trend in temperature and humidity for the next two days is indicated."

Temperatures dropped to the low 70s generally across the Keystone State during the night, with even lower readings in the mountain and lake sections.

But more heat is on the way. The weather station in Philadelphia predicted temperatures in the 90s for the next two—and maybe three—days.

So far this month there have been 17 days on which temperatures climbed into the 90s at Philadelphia, and the mercury reached a sizzling 100 last week.

There's a chance of scattered showers or thunderstorms tomorrow night in the mountain sections, and the possibility of scattered rain on Thursday the bureau said. Otherwise—it will remain just plain hot.

Fishermen Get your night-crawlers and worms at Gettysburg News and Sporting Goods, 31 Chambersburg St.

The Adams County School Board meeting Monday evening at the Court House gave approval to plans to enlarge the vocational agriculture facilities at Biglerville High School and named a second speech correctionist for the county.

Miss Joan Patricia Simmons, Indiana, Pa., was selected to fill the $4,200 per year post. Her salary is the same as that set for the county's first speech correctionist, selected last month, Miss Jennie L. Blatchford, Oak Knoll, Pa.

The two young women will begin their duties "about the middle of August," County Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle told the county board.

First Ever In County

Miss Simmons, 24, a graduate of Indiana State Teachers College, taught for the last two years at Puncutawney, serving part time as a speech correctionist and part time as an English teacher. She currently is doing graduate work at Pennsylvania State University.

Riegle said both Miss Simmons and Miss Blatchford were highly recommended for the posts here. They will become the first speech correctionists ever employed by the county. Authorization to the posts was given by school directors of the county at a special convention last spring.

Superintendent Riegle told the county board that the Upper Adams Joint School system is planning to add to and renovate the present vocational agriculture room at the Biglerville High School and that with completion of the work there will be 1,800 square feet of floor space for the shop and classroom. With the steadily increasing enrollment in the vo-ag course, the present facilities are becoming extremely crowded, Riegle said.

Three transportation contracts were given the county board approval.

Approval Reports

The transportation contract between M. T. Walter and the Upper Adams Joint School System calls for payment of $9.42 per day; the one between Harry Lerew and the Upper Adams system, $6 per day, and the one between Guy W. Seifert and the Fairfield Joint School System, $10 per day.

Four annual financial reports were approved.

The financial report for Conewago Jointure shows that for the year ending July 4, the district had spent $178,837.19, leaving it with a balance of $254.80. BODIES OF TWO BROTHERS ARE FOUND IN DAM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two little brothers were found drowned today in the Schuylkill River, a quarter mile north of the Fairmount Dam.

They were Daniel, nine, and Albert Waters, seven.

A search for the bodies began last night after their five-year-old sister, Wanda, was brought home from the park and told her worried mother:

"They tried to go fishing and they fell in. They're down in the water."

At first she told police her brothers had tried to walk across the lip of the dam and had tumbled into the water.

Immediately park police began a search that lasted until 2:30 this morning and resumed at daybreak. Later, they took Wanda back to the scene and asked her to tell them again where the boys fell into the water. She took them to a spot north of the dam. Police began dragging there and found the bodies.

Th mother collapsed after the first body was brought ashore and had to be taken to Presbyterian Hospital for a sedative.

Deans Interrogator Nabbed By Koreans

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean counterintelligence agents today announced arrest of an alleged Communist agent who is supposed to have questioned Maj. Gen. William F. Dean in a Red prison camp in South Korea shortly after Dean's capture in August 1950.

R.O.K. officials accused Lee Chong Kwang, 25, of entering the prison at Chonju, questioning Dean, and then passing Dean's answers to the Communists.

They emphasized that Dean gave no military information in his answers but said that in itself did not minimize Lee's "crime of spying and informing."

The spokesman said Lee had been captured "just before he was scheduled to go to the United States, under an assumed name, for the purpose of spying against the United States."

FAIL TO NAME DIRECTOR FOR PA. FISH GROUP

HARRISBURG (AP)—The post of executive director of the state Fish Commission still was vacant today after the commission said it wished to discuss further "the six men who have applied for the post."

"We have not yet elected an executive director and I have no idea when one will be elected," R. Stanley Smith, commission president, said following a commission meeting yesterday.

Smith said the commission "handled routine business" during its closed door meeting but added members did discuss "the six men who have applied for the post."

May Meet Later in Week
He indicated that the commission might meet again this week if it is found that an executive director must be named before the end of July.

Charles A. French was dropped from the $12,500 a year post two weeks ago by unanimous vote of the body. H. R. Strackhouse, administrative secretary, has been assigned to handle the executive director's duties until a successor to French is named.

Commissioner John Grenoble, New Bloomfield, said that Dr. Karl F. Lagler, chairman of the Department of Fisheries at the University of Michigan, was being considered for the post.

Other Good Men
"However there are some other good men being considered," Grenoble added, "and consideration on all counts is what they will get."

To Sing At Music Festival

The Columbians quartet, pictured above, will entertain at the fifth annual music festival to be presented under the sponsorship of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce, on Friday, 8:30 p.m., on Littlestown Memorial Field. Barbershop harmony selections will be featured by this quartet, which comes from Washington, D. C. This group was semi-finalists for the 1955 barbershop harmony contest.

Others attending yesterday's meeting were Wallace Dean, Meadville; Albert Hinkle Jr., vice president, Clearfield; Gerard J. Adams, Hawley, and Charles C. Houser, Allentown.

Two vacancies now exist on the eight-man commission.

Fix Season Dates
In other action the commission retained this year's dates for the 1956 trout and bass seasons and made only minor revisions in the state's fishing regulations.

Next year's trout season will open at 5 a.m., April 15 and continued until July 31. Fishing will be on a 24-hour a day basis.

The bass season next year will open at 12:01 a.m. July 1 and continue until Nov. 30, also on a 24-hour a day basis.

Grenoble said a change in the rules will make walleyed pike legal at Lake Wallenpaupack in Pike and Wayne counties beginning May 31 instead of July 1. Other fishing seasons, including the one for walleyed pike except at Wallenpaupack and Lake Pymatuning, will open the same day as bass season.

RESERVES BILL MAY GET ACTION

WASHINGTON (AP)—Final action from Congress on a new military reserve program probably will come today.

It isn't exactly what President Eisenhower requested. However, there's been no indication he will veto it.

The Senate has it on the calendar to be considered after an appropriation bill. Quick approval is expected. The House passed it yesterday 317-78.

The bill is designed to attract more volunteers to the reserves and give the Pentagon some authority to compel reservists in the future to keep up minimum training.

It is designed to get 2,900,000 trained men in the reserves by about 1960. The ready reserve now numbers between 700,000 and 800,000.

President

"Race Suicide"

2. "A growing realization by all"—including the Soviets—"that nuclear warfare pursued to the ultimate could be practically race suicide."

3. "A realization that negotiations can be conducted without propaganda and threats and incentives."

4. "A better understanding and

a closer unity among the nations of NATO."

Without visible emotion, he spoke of the diplomatic surprise he scored at Geneva—his proposal that this country and the Soviet Union exchange military blueprints and permit aerial photographing of each other's military facilities.

"The principal purpose, of course, was to convince everyone of Western sincerity in seeking peace," he said. "But another idea was this:

Durable Disarmament System

"If we could go ahead and establish this kind of inspection as an initiation of an inspection system, we could possibly develop it into a broader one and eventually build on it an effective and durable disarmament system."

Eisenhower repeated too what he had told congressional leaders earlier in the day—that no secret agreements were made at Geneva, either written ones or "understood" ones.

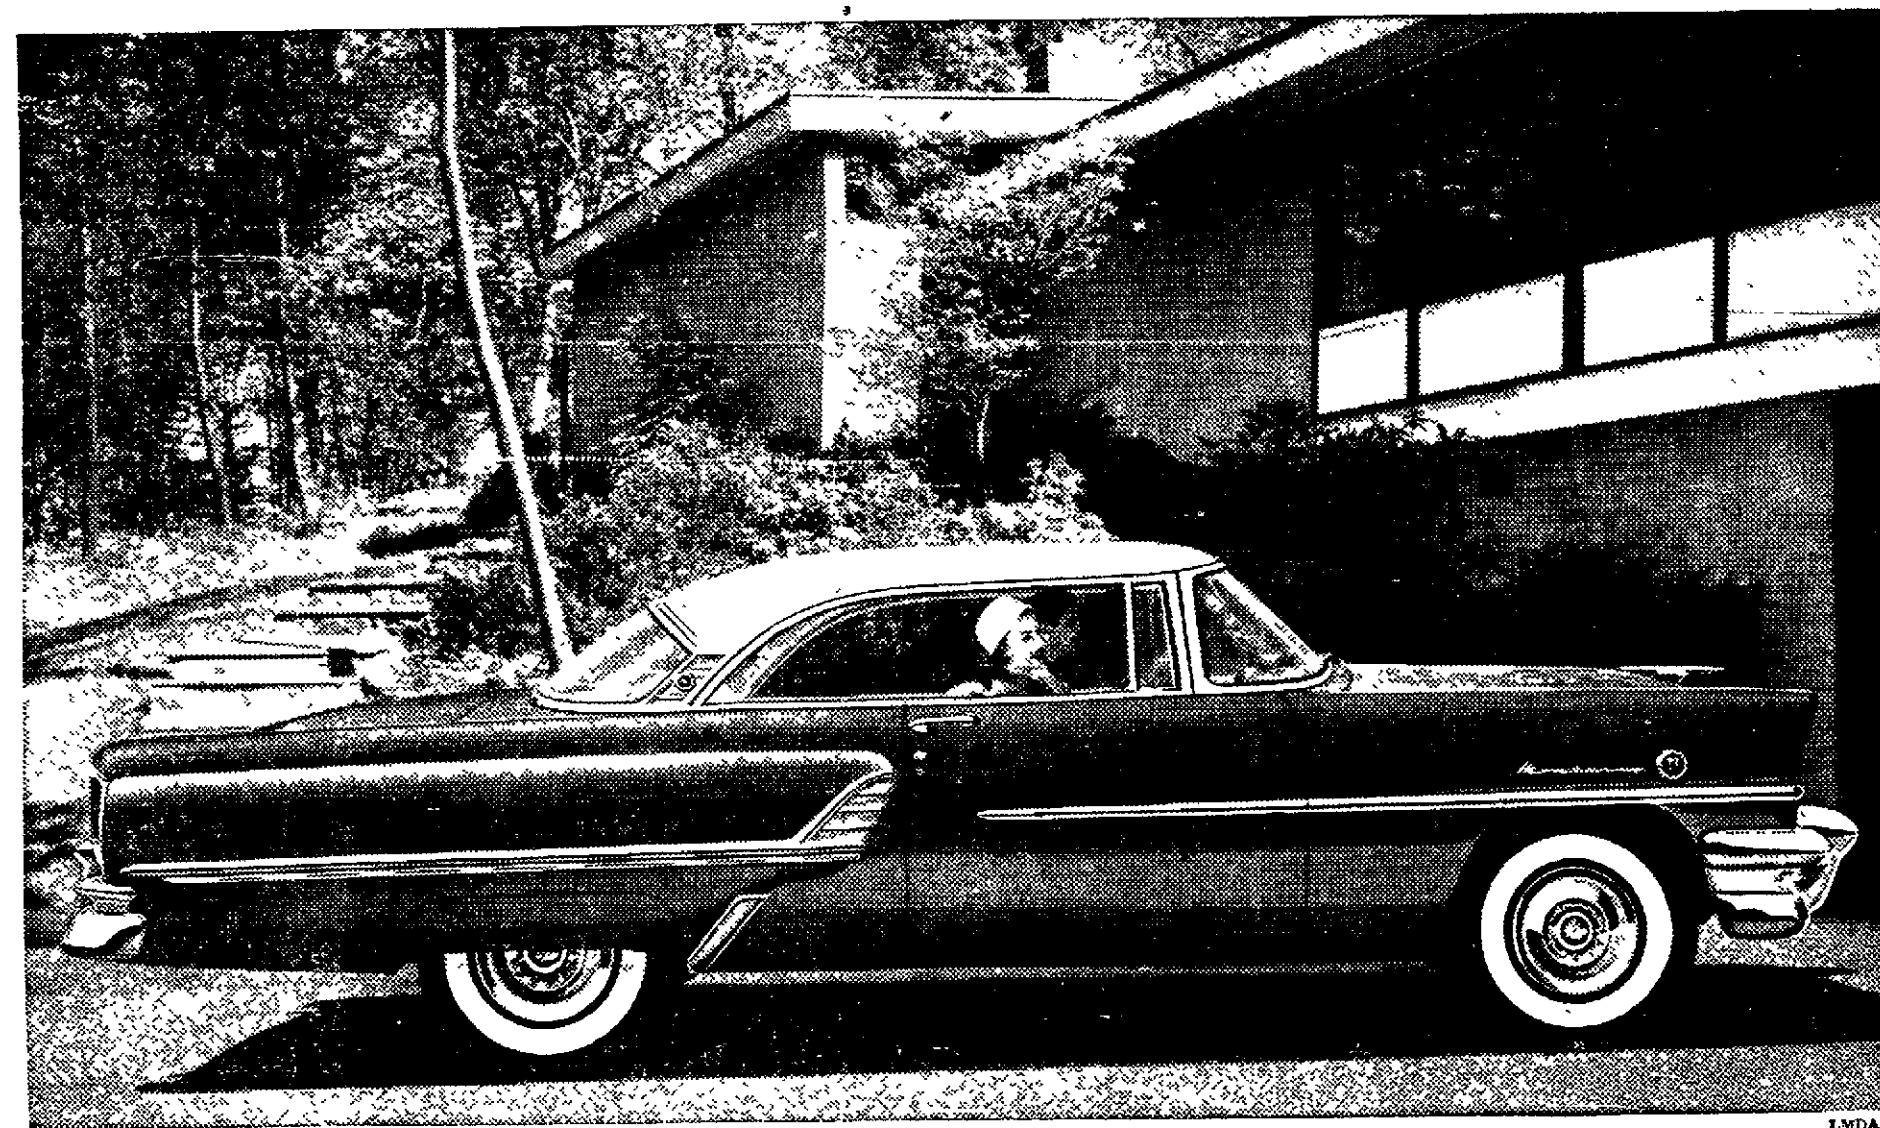

"Probably no question caused us as much trouble," he said, "as that of German reunification and European security."

"At first we thought that these could be dealt with separately, but the American delegation concluded that they had to be dealt with as one subject. We held that Germany should be reunited under a government freely chosen by themselves and under conditions that would provide security, both for nations of the East and for nations of the West."

The Russians, at Geneva, apparently withdrew their objections to Western Germany's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, at least for the time being. They showed no sign of backing down, however, on their opposition to a united Germany as part of the Western security system.

this purpose we will work cooperatively with the Soviets and any other people as long as there is sincerity of purpose and a genuine desire to go ahead."

"Race Suicide"

2. "A growing realization by all"—including the Soviets—"that nuclear warfare pursued to the ultimate could be practically race suicide."

3. "A realization that negotiations can be conducted without propaganda and threats and incentives."

4. "A better understanding and

a closer unity among the nations of NATO."

Without visible emotion, he spoke of the diplomatic surprise he scored at Geneva—his proposal that this country and the Soviet Union exchange military blueprints and permit aerial photographing of each other's military facilities.

"The principal purpose, of course, was to convince everyone of Western sincerity in seeking peace," he said. "But another idea was this:

Durable Disarmament System
"If we could go ahead and establish this kind of inspection as an initiation of an inspection system, we could possibly develop it into a broader one and eventually build on it an effective and durable disarmament system."

Eisenhower repeated too what he had told congressional leaders earlier in the day — that no secret agreements were made at Geneva, either written ones or "understood" ones.

"At first we thought that these could be dealt with separately, but the American delegation concluded that they had to be dealt with as one subject. We held that Germany should be reunited under a government freely chosen by themselves and under conditions that would provide security, both for nations of the East and for nations of the West."

The Russians, at Geneva, apparently withdrew their objections to Western Germany's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, at least for the time being. They showed no sign of backing down, however, on their opposition to a united Germany as part of the Western security system.

BODIES OF TWO BROTHERS ARE FOUND IN DAM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two little brothers were found drowned today in the Schuylkill River, a quarter mile north of the Fairmount Dam. They were Daniel, nine, and Albert Waters, seven.

A search for the bodies began last night after their five-year-old sister, Wanda, was brought home from the park and told her worried mother:

"They tried to go fishing and they fell in. They're down in the water."

At first she told police her brothers had tried to walk across the lip of the dam and had tumbled into the water.

Immediately park police began a search that lasted until 2:30 this morning and resumed at daybreak.

Later, they took Wanda back to the scene and asked her to tell them again where the boys fell into the water. She took them to a spot north of the dam. Police began dragging there and found the bodies.

The mother collapsed after the first body was brought ashore and had to be taken to Presbyterian Hospital for a sedative.

Gen. Donovan, head of the Office of Strategic Services in World War II, was located in New York state and flew here. He later went to Washington. The dead woman's husband, David, remained in Virginia with the other children awaiting his wife's body.

Medical Examiner Dr. William Rosen said he found no signs of violence but would reserve a finding pending a complete report. He said vital organs and tissues were sent to Boston for tests. Dr. Rosen added that pills and capsules found in the bedroom also would be examined.

The former Mary Grandin of Warren, Pa., Mrs. Donovan was married in 1938. Besides her husband and children she leaves her mother, Mrs. John Bancroft Jr., and a brother, James, both of Wilmington, Del.

Deans Interrogator Nabbed By Koreans

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean counterintelligence agents today announced arrest of an alleged Communist agent who is supposed to have questioned Maj. Gen. William F. Dean in a Red prison camp in South Korea shortly after Dean's capture in August 1950.

ROK officials accused Lee Chang Kwang, 35, of entering the prison at Chonju, questioning Dean, and then passing Dean's answers to the Communists.

They emphasized that Dean gave no military information in his answers but said that in itself did not minimize Lee's "crime of spying and informing."

Police said he drove his car into the center lane of the three-lane highway, swerved off into the wrong lane, sideswiped the truck which had pulled off the road to avoid the collision, and continued on for about 100 yards before stopping.

The impact ure the roof from the car and tossed it across the busy highway.

Mrs. Lizette Storm, of Baltimore,
is visiting friends in Abbottstown.
Though 95 years old, she is quite active and has good use of all her senses. She takes walks which would fatigue many a much younger person. She made the journey from Baltimore to Abbottstown alone.

Rural Carriers' Holidays: Postmaster General Cortelyou has now issued an order providing that hereafter service on Rural free delivery routes shall be suspended on
New Year's day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial day, Fourth of July, Labor day and Thanksgiving.

At Caledonia: The old blacksmith
shop at Caledonia is to be made into a waiting room as soon as the trolley line is extended that
far. It has been arranged by President Kennedy, of the trolley line,
to build a twelve-foot porch around
the entire building and to place a suitable tablet to mark the history of the place. Ties for the trolley
extension are being placed rapidly.

Burns Prove Fatal: Miss Mary
Mickley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
David Mickley, of Seven Stars, died
at the home of Wesley Mickley, Perth, Kansas, on Sunday last,
death being due to burns received on July 13th. She was about 20 years of age.

The remains will be brought to her home at McKnightstown and are expected to arrive to-day. Funeral Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at Florh's church.

Mason-Dixon Line Re-Surveyed:
Original Diones Were Scattered
And Considerable Time Was Spent
In Locating Them: The re-survey
of the historic Mason and Dixon line has been completed by the corps employed jointly by the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

When the Legislatures of the two states decided not to allow the famous boundary line to disappear
so far as visible signs of its location were concerned, they undertook a work that proved very difficult and tedious. The surveyors were obliged to cut a patch through the mountains and they found
many of the old markers and crown stones displaced. In Adams county one stone was used as a doorstep in a dwelling, another in a church; some were doing duty in bake ovens and others were lying miles from their original places.
All were recovered, although not without vigorous objection on the part of the persons who were using them.

The work of re-establishing the line was very carefully done, and the old stone posts set along its course after Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon marked it out in 1763 were reset in solid cement
bases, and iron posts were substituted in places where the old posts have disappeared.

Arendtsville Items: Jacob F.
Taylor and James O. Hoffman,
our large peach growers, have the prospect for a large crop this season.

We understand that the Democrats have decided not to hold their county convention until after the Republican nominations have been made. This is a new departure for the Democracy of Adams county.

Brezy Biglerville: The Biglerville Bank was organized on Friday evening. A division of the stock was allotted. The following officers and directors were elected:
President, Hon. C. L. Longsdorf;
Vice President, R. H. Lupp; Directors, C. L. Longsdorf, R. H.

and George W. Wagoner. Dale
Heiges was elected cashier.

THE GLORY OF SILENCE
Here at "Weskawenak" I can truthfully say that silence is certainly "golden," for we hear only
the music of the whispering wind,
the wash of the waves, the chirp
of birds, or the distant whistle of a locomotive.

It's blessed silence here, and it's like rare medicine! I like to think of Thoreau while here, for he was a lover of all that I love. He once said, perhaps with Walden in mind, that "silence is the universal refuge, the sequel to all dull discourses and all foolish acts, a balm
to our every chagrin, as welcome after satiety as after disappointment."

But, no matter how silent the days and nights may be, restlessness is not a factor here. There is too much to think about, too
many new books to read, letters,
long neglected, to write, and new resolves to fashion. I keep thinking of that sentence by John Burroughs that I copied from the bird sanctuary created by Edward Bok
at Lake Wales, Florida. I have it
above my fireplace. It reads: "I come here often to find myself. It is so easy to get lost in the world."

The only way that anyone can get lost on this little island of "Weskawenak" is for him to get lost in thought! And that isn't difficult. I have committed to memory every flower by name. They are my friends with whom I commune, as I do with every variety
of tea that welcomes me here
over the years.

People in the city, to coin for the purpose of a new word, become noisiated. It comes over them, however, when they are least
aware of the fact. At vacation time it reaches its most widespread proportions! Dr. Nature says:
"Get out into the open spaces.
Select the quiet place, not the noisy, populated one. Make yourself a guest of all outdoors! There are perpetual beauty and silence
there — and both are highly medical — spiritually."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Confiding In Another"

LEARNING
Since I am English, born and bred,
I learned the letters A to Z.
And when I had accomplished that,
I learned to spell both dog and cat.

They taught me two plus two
make four.
And, I'm afraid, but little more.
I lost the first good job I had
Because I hadn't learned to add.

The chief accountant shook his head:
"You are no help to me," he said.
The editor may you employ,
I hear he needs a copy boy."

He kept me on the staff though I could neither add nor multiply.
From dog and cat I moved ahead.
I knew the letters A to Zed.

Aids Science And Gets Rid Of Bats

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs.
Royal Atkinson has furthered the cause of science and saved herself
from going "batty."

Bats flitted in and out of her
living room for more than a week.
Then she read of a woman scientist at the University of Cincinnati who was just crazy about bats.

Why, Dr. Elizabeth Smith even
kept the creatures in a refrigerator
— for scientific purposes.

So yesterday, on request, Dr.
Smith arrived at the Atkinson
home and caught the bats: 22 of them, including 11 babies.

He said the safe was jammed
in being moved two years ago and
he hasn't been able to open it

ASK MORE FACTS
AT NEW HEARING

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating the business interests
of Secretary of the Air Force Talbott called for further evidence today on a New York firm's negotiations with the Radio Corp. of America.

Called as a witness before the Senate Investigations subcommittee was Air Force General Counsel
John A. Johnson.

The group heard testimony yesterday that Talbott had declared last January that Johnson "is representing me" in efforts to convince RCA of the propriety and legality of doing business with a firm in which he holds an interest.

He Will Decide
Also introduced into the record was a letter from RCA Board
note of suggestions that Talbott
had sought to influence him to have RCA sign a contract with the management engineering firm of Paul B. Mulligan & Co.

"In order that there may be no
misunderstanding," Sarnoff said,
"in fairness to Secretary Talbott
and at his request, I wish to state that Secretary Talbott has never made any such attempt to influence me."

The Chattanooga Times said,
meanwhile, that informed capital
sources expected President Eisenhower to decide quickly whether to end Talbott's services as secretary.

"Clean" And "Proper"
White House Press Secretary
James C. Hagerly told newsmen
yesterday the Talbott-Mulligan
matter had been called to Eisenhower's attention, "but he has not had a complete report as yet."

In a dispatch from Washington,
the Chattanooga Times quoted an unnamed White House official as saying, "I don't think that the President is going to play around with this one." It added that policy-making forces in the administration were said to be forming in opposition to Talbott's continuance in office.

The Senate subcommittee is inquiring into the propriety of Talbott's partnership in the Mulligan firm, which has as clients some companies with government contracts. Talbott has said his "clean"
and "proper" agreement calls for a 50-50 split of profits with Mulligan after the latter draws a salary of $25,000 a year. Talbott also has said he would decline profits from the firm's dealings with any company "predominantly" in-gaged in government work.

Mulligan testified yesterday Tal-
bott has received $132,032 from
the firm since becoming secretary
of the Air Force — a post which pays $18,000 yearly — early in 1953.

Sam Ewing, an RCA attorney,
testified he received a telephone call about last Jan. 4 in which,
he said, both Talbott and Johnson
tried to talk RCA out of a belief that it should not make a new contract with the Mulligan firm while Talbott was its partner and a Pentagon official.

He quoted Johnson as saying
"he was prepared to write a legal opinion to RCA saying there was no objection to this contract being entered into."

RED CHINA MUST

By JOHN SCALI
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States was described today as
ready to discuss a number of Far East problems directly with Communist China if the Reds agree to free 51 or so American citizens.

U.S. officials said Red China's attitude toward this long-standing American demand would determine the scope of the special conference which, it was announced yesterday, will begin next Monday
in Geneva.

If the Chinese Reds refuse to release 11 American airmen and 40 civilians, they said, there will be no point in talking about other tensions, such as a Formosa cease-fire.

Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman
of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview the talks may help clear
the air for a future conference on other matters with Red China, perhaps on the foreign ministers' level.

Peiping radio proposed yesterday that the fate of Nationalist-held Formosa and Red China's admission to the United Nations
"be settled through consultation
among the countries concerned."

George said Dulles made it clear at a closed meeting of the Foreign Relations Committee yesterday there would be at the ambassadors' talks in Geneva no discussions "involving any third party — in this case, Nationalist China."

On Formosa, the Nationalists
maintained official silence.
Noncongressional informants said
the Geneva talks will not seek to chart an over-all Far East settlement but will concentrate on what are regarded as issues between the two countries. Nationalist China, therefore, would not be directly involved.

This formula would bar any agreement on the future of Formosa. Such items as the Western trade blockade of the Chinese mainland and Red China's aid to Red forces in Indochina and Korea could be introduced.

Add a little nutmeg to the dipping liquid for French toast. Serve with panfried peaches (fresh or canned)
and crisp bacon for brunch.

McIlhenny-Heldt, Cogley-Benner Teams Win In Rec Tennis Tournament Matches

The doubles teams formed by Helen McIlhenny and Rachael Heldt, and by Dick Cogley and Lloyd Benner advanced to the second round of the Recreation Association Tennis Tournament with straight-set victories Monday evening.

The two tournament "dark horses" will meet in one of the singles semifinals this evening when Ed Hirschman tangles with Sid Steinhour, in a best-of-five-sets match. Hirschman breezed through Ed Nowicki and Jim Gilbert in the first two rounds, while the 15-year-old Steinhour, playing on successive evenings last week, bounced out Jack Kunkle, John Houser and Jack Lose.

Dick Heintzelman and Ray Nowak will attempt to complete the other semifinal this evening. Begun last Thursday, the match was halted by darkness at one set apiece and 5-5 in games on the third set. The finals have been scheduled for Thursday.

The third match this evening will pit Jane Bigham against Jody Bream, with the winner facing undefeated Ann McIlhenny Thursday. Miss Bigham holds a win over Janet Staiger and a loss to Miss McIlhenny, while Miss Bream's record shows a win over Jean Albright and a loss to Miss Staiger.

Rod Steinhour Injured
Doubles play Monday evening was marred by an injury to Rodney Steinhour. Rod and Sid Steinhour were playing Dick Cogley and Lloyd Benner. The latter duo took a 3-1 lead in the first set, and fought to deuce on the fifth. Rod was playing net when a smash by Cogley hit him in the lower abdomen. He was unable to continue, and had to be helped from the court. The injury was quite painful, and its extent could not be determined immediately.

Hugh McIlhenny filled in as a substitute, and he and Sid Steinhour dropped a 6-4, 6-2 match to Cogley and Benner. Cogley and Benner exhibited a potent doubles game, as both have booming serves and deadly net slams.

Steinhour and McIlhenny threatened only once during the match. They pulled up to 3-4 in the first set, and took a 5-30 lead in the eighth game. But then Benner smashed in some serves that could not be returned, to give his team a 5-3 lead. They ran out the set at 6-4, and breezed through the second set with little difficulty.

Mrs. McIlhenny and Mrs. Heldt defeated the only other women's team in doubles competition, Janet Bigham and Jody Bream, by scores of 6-1 and 6-3. The winners were too steady and too skillful for their younger rivals. The ladies are scheduled to play Cogley and Benner in their second round next week.

Two Teams Withdraw
One new team has been entered and two withdrawn from doubles play. Ray Nowak and Dick Heintzelman, and Bing Albright and Jim Gilbert withdrew because of vacations by team members. Gilbert reentered with Glenn Weishaar as his partner, and the two will see their first action when doubles play resumes Thursday evening.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A race around the world in opposite directions began last night from the San Francisco International Airport.

Andrew W. Lerios, local travel agency executive, left on a Pan American Airways plane, Honolulu-bound at 11:18 p.m. PDT yesterday.

An hour 22 minutes later — at 12:40 a.m. today — Susan Bryan, Miss San Francisco International Airport, departed for Dallas on the first leg of her eastbound global trip.

Circling the earth to West and East, the travelers plan to be back in San Francisco next weekend, when Miss Bryan will reign at a flight-of-rama sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the new 14 million dollar airport.

Miss Bryan is attempting to set a round-the-world record for non-jet commercial flight.

WARRIORS FACE 10-GAME CARD; OPENER SEPT. 9

Gettysburg High School's football squad is due to report for pre-season drills on Thursday, August 18, the date set by the PIAA as the earliest schools are permitted to hold practice.

For the first time in many years the Warriors will play a 10-game schedule, the opener being listed for Friday evening, September 9, when the Westminster Owls will come here.

A number of switches have been made in the schedule which ends Armistice Day, November 11, with the Warriors invading Hanover.

The complete schedule:
September 9, Westminster home; 16, Delone, away; 23, Shippensburg, home; 30, Chambersburg, away; October 7, Mechanicsburg, home; 14, Middletown, away; 21, Hershey, home; 28, Waynesboro, away; November 4, Carlisle, home; 11, Hanover, away. *Indicates South Penn Conference games.

Other Schedules
Five games and one open date appear on the Junior Varsity schedule.
September 29, Waynesboro, home; October 3, Boiling Springs, away; 13, Hanover, away; 20, Shippensburg, home; 27, open; November 3, Chambersburg away. All games will be played at 3:30 p.m.

The Junior High squad will play a six-game schedule, three in the afternoon and three under the lights.
September 29, Delone, away, 8 p.m.; October 6, Washington Twp., home, 7 p.m.; 13, Shippensburg, away, 3:30 p.m.; 20, Waynesboro, home, 7 p.m.; 27, Hanover, away, 3:30; November 3, Chambersburg, home, 3:30.

A Different Slant
Middlecoff had an entirely different slant on Ford's "shoot-and-run" style.

"I'll take as long as I want—and he'll have to just like it," Middlecoff said. "I'll play my little old white ball, and let him pay his."

It took Ford 5 hours and 10 minutes to dispose of Shelley Mayfield of Westbury, N.Y., 4 and 3, at the Meadowbrook Country Club.

Middlecoff, playing the same distance, took 6 hours and 55 minutes before he finished off Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga, Tenn., by a similar 4 and 3 margin.

His Favorite Course
Middlecoff seems to have the edge for the championship windup at the 6,701-yard, par 71 Meadowbrook layout. This is one of his favorite courses, having won three tournaments here.

The Middlecoff-Bolt match yesterday drew most of the gallery of 6,500, but they saw very little good golf through the first 18 holes. After blowing four 1 up leads Middlecoff finally went to lunch with a one-hole advantage by firing an eagle 3 on the 17th hole, dropping a wood to within four feet of the pin.

A pair of 20-foot putts on the 21st and 23rd sent Middlecoff into a 3 up lead, and Bolt—who had gained the reputation as the tournament's hatchet man by knocking out Sammy Snead, Jack Fleck and Lew Worsham—never recovered.

GAME ON WEDNESDAY
Blue Ridge Summit and Thurnmont will play off their postponed game in the Pen-Mar Baseball League at Thurnmont Wednesday evening instead of Friday as previously planned, it was announced today.

Lefty Gomez still holds the best won and lost record ever turned in by a Yankee pitcher. In 1934 he won 25 and lost five.

DIMAGGIO IS "BIG HIT" AT COOPERSTOWN

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—In his prime, no New York Yankee game was over until Joe DiMaggio had his cut. And yesterday, as baseball paused to add six more names to its scroll of immortality, it again was Joltin' Joe who delivered the big hit.

Those who gathered to watch the enshrinement greeted the first five newcomers to baseball's Hall of Fame with polite respect, applauding warmly as first Frank (Home Run) Baker and then Ray Schalk, Dazzy Vance, Gabby Hartnett and Ted Lyons were introduced.

But the formality was gone when commissioner Ford Frick extended his hand to DiMaggio. The cheering was unrestrained. The crowd whistled and shouted. There were cries of "Atta boy, Joe!"

"A Happy Day"
This was the "baby" of the six, as Frick called DiMaggio. The Yankee Clipper, fortyish, was the best remembered. He had played only yesterday, while the others were from the past.

"This is a happy day for me," said Joe, and then he talked of how he came up with the Yankees. Of how he had followed every move of the late Lou Gehrig, learning "what makes a big leaguer."

"I'm proud, indeed, to be put alongside Lou, Bill Dickey, my other old teammate, and those other great players of my Sox and before."

Afterward, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Milwaukee Braves 4-2 in the annual exhibition game held in conjunction with the festivities.

Games to be televised will be against Miami, Oct. 7; Navy, Oct. 28; Iowa, Nov. 19; and possibly the Southern California game, Nov. 26.

The closed circuit system of the Sheraton Hotels will be used and the games will be shown in hotel ballrooms.

Eastern League

Schenectady left-hander Gene Snyder probably is the unhappiest pitcher in the Eastern League today.

He pitched no-hit ball for five innings in last night's game with Albany, struck out 11 and gave up only two hits to his opponents' eight.

And still he lost. It was his fifth straight defeat without a win. Aided by an unearned run Albany managed to make good use of its

Fighting off a desperate last inning rally by the VFW, the Texas Lunch vaulted into first place in the Softball League by downing the Vets 6-5 in the second game of Monday's twin bill.

Sparked by Charley Timbers, who poled two singles, a double and triple, the Lunchmen built up a 6-1 lead going into the final frame. Then the VFW put on its rally. Bossak and Kebil singled and Ben Little doubled to score both. Fazenbaker was saved on an error, Little scoring. Another bobble allowed Fazenbaker to tally before the final out was made.

What proved to be the winning runs for the Lunchmen came in the sixth on a walk to Furney, double by Timbers and a pair of errors.

Elks Triumph
In the opening game the Elks drubbed the Eagles 16-8 in a slow-moving slugfest. Jack Codori homered for the Eagles with a man on in the fifth. Danny Roth rapped a four-bagger for the Elks to lead off the seventh.

Bill Knox drew his first starting assignment for the Elks and fanned five while walking nine.

SENATORS EDGE PHILLIES IN AL ALL-STAR TILT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Senators edged the "Phillies" 5-3 at Connie Mack Stadium yesterday in the 12th annual Eastern Pennsylvania All-Star game, sponsored by the American Legion.

Ted Sloan, an outstanding defensive backstop for the "Phillies" who picked off four runners at second base, won the most valuable player award. He also contributed a single toward what turned out to be a losing team cause.

The important point of the game was that some 48 young players got a chance to display their talents for major league scouts as well as relatives and friends through 10 innings of well-played baseball. The game is scheduled for an extra frame to give the host of young aspiring moundmen of tomorrow's major leagues a chance to show their wares. Each of 10 pitchers hurled two complete innings.

Hurler Hitless Ball
Vince Seaman, Bethlehem, who fanned four in the 9th and 10th frames for the "Senators," hurled a hitless ball and was another scarce contender for the most valuable player award.

Another under consideration for the title was Paul Price of Fleetwood, who hit the longest drive of the game, a triple to deep right-centerfield.

John Skibiel, Minersville, was the winning pitcher and Edwin Spence, Dauphin, took the loss.

Connie Mack Ther
Among the prominent spectators were the grand old man of baseball, Connie Mack, and Robert M. Carpenter, owner of the National League Philadelphia Phillies.

Southpaw Donald Rice, the "Phillies" fourth pitcher, hurled his two innings with a broken right arm and allowed not a single hit.

Two Lock Haven lads played on opposite sides.
Jerry Haverly played center for the last four innings for the "Phillies." In his only time at the plate, he grounded to the shortstop.

Francis Poorman caught the last five innings for the "Senators" and made four putouts—all on strikeouts. He flied out in the 7th and popped out in the 9th.

GENE POIRIER DEFEATS PEREZ

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Poirier came back the hard way last night, five weeks after a knockout defeat, to win a blazing battle with Danny Jo Perez.

The scrawny welter from Niagara Falls, N.Y., raked Perez with his left hooks and shook him with his right but never could bring him down in their 10-round scrap at St. Nicholas Arena. All three officials, Referee Barney Felix and Judges Bert Grant and Bell Recht, scored it 6-4. The AP had it 7-3 for Poirier, who was penalized the sixth round for a low blow.

Perez outboxed Poirier in the early stages but ran into heavy going in the fourth and fifth. He also took a good going over in the sixth when Referee Felix ruled he was hit low by two right hand punches.

Each boxer weighed 147 for the televised bout, watched by 850 paying $1,300.

Poirier was knocked out by Oscar Pita of Argentina June 20.

McIlhenny-Heldt, Cogley-Benner Teams Win In Rec Tennis Tournament Matches

The doubles teams formed by Helen McIlhenny and Rachael Heldt, and by Dick Cogley and Lloyd Benner advanced to the second round of the Recreation Association Tennis Tournament with straight-set victories Monday evening.

The two tournament "dark horses" will meet in one of the singles semifinals this evening when Ed Hirschman tangles with Sid Steiner, in a best-of-five-sets match. Hirschman breezed through Ed Nowicki and Jim Gilbert in the first two rounds, while the 15-year-old Steiner, playing on successive evenings last week, bounced out Jack Kunkle, John Houser and Jack Lose.

Dick Heinzelman and Ray Nowak will attempt to complete the other semifinal this evening. Begun last Thursday, the match was halted by darkness at one set apiece and 5-5 in games on the third set. The finals have been scheduled for Thursday.

The third match this evening will pit Jane Bigham against Jody Bream, with the winner facing undefeated Ann McIlhenny Thursday. Miss Bigham holds a win over Janet Staiger and a loss to Miss McIlhenny, while Miss Bream's record shows a win over Jean Albright and a loss to Miss Staiger.

Rod Steiner Injured
Doubles play Monday evening was marred by an injury to Rodney Steiner. Rod and Sid Steiner were playing Dick Cogley and Lloyd Benner. The latter duo took a 3-1 lead in the first set, and fought to deuce on the fifth. Rod was playing net when a smash by Cogley hit him in the lower abdomen. He was unable to continue and had to be helped from the court. The injury was quite painful, and its extent could not be determined immediately.

Hugh McIlhenny filled in as a substitute, and he and Sid Steiner dropped a 6-4, 6-2 match to Cogley and Benner. Cogley and Benner exhibited a potent doubles game, as both have booming serves and deadly net slams.

Steiner and McIlhenny threatened only once during the match. They pulled up to 3-4 in the first set, and took a 5-30 lead in the eighth game. But then Benner smashed in some serve that could not be returned, to give his team a 5-3 lead. They ran out the set at 6-4, and breezed through the second set with little difficulty.

Mrs. McIlhenny and Mrs. Heldt defeated the only other women's team in doubles competition, Janet Bigham and Jody Bream, by scores of 6-1 and 6-3. The winners were too steady and too skillful for their younger rivals. The ladies are scheduled to play Cogley and Benner in their second round next week.

Two Teams Withdraw
One new team has been entered and two withdrawn from doubles play. Ray Nowak and Dick Heinzelman, and Bing Albright and Jim Gilbert withdrew because of vacations by team members. Gilbert re-entered with Glenn Weishaar as his partner, and the two will see their first action when doubles play resumes Thursday evening.

MIDDLECOFF, FORD STAGING WAR OF NERVES

By JOE FALLS
DETROIT—Doug Ford and Cary Middlecoff, who square off today for the 37th PGA championship, simply don't like each other's style of play.

Even as they walked triumphantly from the 33rd green of their semi-finals victories—hours apart—they were hurling needling jibes at each other's game. They let it be known, then and there, that their 36-hole title match would be as much a battle of nerves as of shots.

"That guy plays so slow that maybe I'd better bring my trailer along and sleep between shots," said Ford. "I might even lap him."

Middlecoff had an entirely different slant on Ford's "shoot-and-run" style.

But the formality was gone when commissioner Ford Frick extended his hand to DiMaggio. The cheering was unrestrained. The crowd whistled and shouted. There were cries of "Atta boy, Joe!"

"A Happy Day"

This was the "baby" of the six, as Frick called DiMaggio. The Yankee Clipper, fortyish, was the best remembered. He had played only yesterday, while the others were from the past.

"This is a happy day for me," said Joe, and then he talked of how he came up with the Yankees. Of how he had followed every move of the late Lou Gehrig, learning "what makes a big league."

"I'm proud, indeed, to be put alongside Lou, Bill Dickey, my other old teammate, and those other great players of my time and before."

Afterward, the Boston Red Sox defeated the Milwaukee Braves 4-2 in the annual exhibition game held in conjunction with the festivities.

Irish To Telecast On Closed Circuit

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—Notre Dame will telecast at least three of its football games this fall on a closed circuit that will reach 13 cities.

The Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, executive vice president of the university, who made the announcement yesterday, said other cities may be added later.

Cities included on the network will be New York, Chicago, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Rochester, N.Y., St. Louis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Detroit, Philadelphia, Indianapolis and Providence, R.I.

Games to be televised will be against Miami, Oct. 7; Navy, Oct. 29; Iowa, Nov. 19; and possibly the Southern California game, Nov. 26.

The closed circuit system of the Sheraton Hotels will be used and the games will be shown in hotel ballrooms.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Schenectady left-hander Gene Snyder probably is the unhappy pitcher in the Eastern League today. He pitched no-hit ball for five innings in last night's game with Albany, struck out 11 and gave up only two hits to his opponents' eight.

And still he lost it was his fifth straight defeat without a win. Aided by an unlearned run Albany managed to make good use of its

Fighting off a desperate last inning rally by the VFW, the Texas Lunch vaulted into first place in the Softball League by downing the Vets 6-5 in the second game of Monday's twin bill.

Sparked by Charley Timbers, who poled two singles, a double and triple, the Lunchmen built up a 6-1 lead going into the final frame. Then the VFW put on its rally Bosak and Kobil singled and Ben Little doubled to score both. Fazenbaker was saved on an error, Little scoring. Another bobble allowed Fazenbaker to tally before the final out was made.

What proved to be the winning runs for the Lunchmen came in the sixth on a walk to Furney, double by Timbers and a pair of errors.

Elks Triumph

In the opening game the Elks drubbed the Eagles 16-8 in a slow-moving slugfest. Jack Codori homered for the Eagles with a man on in the fifth. Danny Roth rapped a four-bagger for the Elks to lead off the seventh.

Bill Knox drew his first starting assignment for the Elks and fanned five while walking nine.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
FIFTY YEARS AGO

County Jottings: Miss Daisy Reilly, formerly of McSherrystown, who served as a novice, was received into the Order of the Visitation Nuns at the convent near Baltimore, Friday, July 14. Miss Reilly will be known as Sister Mary Claire.

Mrs. Lizette Storm, of Baltimore,
is visiting friends in Abbottstown.
Though 55 years old, she is quite
her senses. She takes walks which would fatigue many a much younger
person. She made the journey from Baltimore to Abbottstown alone.

Rural Carriers' Holidays: Postmaster General Cortelyou has now
issued an order providing that hereafter service on Rural free
Birthday Memorial day, Fourth of July, Labor day and Thanksgiving.

At Caledonia: The old blacksmith
shop at Caledonia is to be made
into a waiting room as soon as
the trolley line is extended that
far. It has been arranged by President Kennedy, of the trolley line,
to build a twelve-foot porch around
the entire building and to place a suitable tablet to mark the history
of the place. Ties for the trolley
extension are being placed rapidly.

Burns Prove Fatal: Miss Mary
Mickley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
David Mickley, of Seven Stars, died
at the home of Wesley Mickley,
Perth, Kansas, on Sunday last,
death being due to burns received
on July 13th. She was about 20 years of age.

The remains will be brought to
her home at McKnightstown and are expected to arrive to-day. Funeral Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Flob's church.

Mason-Dixon Line Re-Surveyed:
Original Stones Were Scattered
And Considerable Time Was Spent
In Locating Them: The re-survey
of the historic Mason and Dixon
line has been completed by the
corps employed jointly by the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

When the Legislatures of the two states decided not to allow the famous boundary line to disappear
so far as visible signs of its location were concerned, they undertook a work that proved very difficult and tedious. The surveyors
were obliged to cut a patch through
the mountains and they found
many of the old markers and
crown stones displaced in Adams
county, one stone was used as a doorstep in a dwelling, another in
a church, some were doing duty
in bake ovens and others were lying miles from their original places.
All were recovered although not without vigorous objection on the part of the persons who were using them.

The work of re-establishing the
line was very carefully done, and
the old stone posts set along its course after Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon marked it out in 1763 were reset in solid cement
bases, and "iron posts were substituted in places where the old
posts have disappeared.

Arendtsville Items: Jacob F.
Taylor and James O. Hoffman,
our large peach growers, have the prospect for a large crop this season.

We understand that the Democrats have decided not to hold
their county convention until after Republican nominations have been made. This is a new departure
for the Democracy of Adams county.

Breezy Biglerville: The Biglerville Bank was organized on Friday evening. A division of the stock was allotted. The following officers and directors were elected:
President, Hon. C. L. Longsdorf;
Vice President, R. H. Lupp; Directors C. L. Longsdorf, R. H.
Lupp, G. W. Koser, F. K. Heiges
and George W. Wagoner. Dale
Heiges was elected cashier.

Today's Talk

Here at "Weskawenak" I can
truthfully say that silence is certainly "golden," for we hear only
the music of the whispering wind,
the wash of the waves, the chirp
of birds, or the distant whistle of
a locomotive.

It's blessed silence here, and it's like rare medicine! I like to think
of Thoreau while here, for he was a lover of all that I love. He once
said, perhaps with Walden in mind,
that "silence is the universal refuge,
the sequel to all dull discourses and all foolish acts, a balm
to our every chagrin, as welcome
after satiety as after disappointment."

But, no matter how silent the days and nights may be, restlessness is not a factor here. There is too much to think about. Too
many new books to read, letters,
long neglected, to write, and new resolves to fashion. I keep thinking of that sentence by John Burroughs that I copied from the bird
sanctuary created by Edward Bok
at Lake Wales, Florida. I have it
above my fireplace. It reads, "I come here often to find myself in it is so easy to get lost in the world."

The only way that anyone can get lost on this little island of "Weskawenak" is for him to get
lost in thought! And that isn't difficult! I have committed to memory every flower by name. They are my friends with whom I commune, as I do with every variety
of tea that welcomes me here
over the years.

People in the city to come for the purpose of a new word, become noised out. It comes over them, however, when they are least
aware of the fact. At vacation
time it reaches its most widespread proportions! Dr. Nature says
"Get out into the open spaces.
Select the quiet place, not the noisy, populated one. Make yourself a guest of all outdoors! There
are perpetual beauty and silence
there — and both are highly medical — spiritually."

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Confiding In Another."

LEARNING

Since I am English, born and bred,
I learned the letters A to Zed,
And when I had accomplished that
I learned to spell both dog and cat.

They taught me two plus two
make four,
And I'm afraid, but little more.
I lost the first good job I had
Because I hadn't learned to add.

The chief accountant shook his
head:
"You are no help to me," he said.
"The editor may you employ,
I hear he needs a copy boy."

He kept me on the staff though I
Could neither add nor multiply.
From dog and cat I moved ahead.
I knew the letters A to Zed.

Gets Rid Of Bats

COVINGTON, Ky. (P) — Mrs.
Royal Atkinson has furthered the cause of science and saved herself
from going "batty."

Bats flitted in and out of her
living room for more than a week.
Then she read of a woman scientist at the University of Cincinnati
who was just crazy about bats.
Why, Dr. Elizabeth Smith even
kept the creatures in a refrigerator
— for scientific purposes.

So yesterday, on request, Dr.
Smith arrived at the Atkinson
home and caught the bats. 22 of
them, including 11 babies.

He said the safe was jammed
in being moved two years ago and
he hasn't been able to open it since.

ASK MORE FACTS

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (P) — Senators investigating the business interests
of Secretary of the Air Force Tal-
bott called for further evidence today on a New York firm's nego-
America.

Called as a witness before the Senate Investigations subcommit-
tee was Air Force General Counsel
John A. Johnson.

The group heard testimony yesterday that Talbott had declared last January that Johnson "is representing me" in efforts to convince RCA of the propriety and
legality of doing business with a firm in which he holds an interest.

Also introduced into the record
was a letter from RCA Board
note of suggestions that Talbott
had sought to influence him to have RCA sign a contract with the
Paul B. Mulligan & Co.

"In order that there may be no
misunderstanding," Sarnoff said
"in fairness to Secretary Talbott
and at his request, I wish to state
that Secretary Talbott has never made any such attempt to influence me."

The Chattanooga Times said,
meanwhile, that informed capital
sources expected President Eisenhower to decide quickly whether to end Talbott's services as secretary.

"Clean" And "Proper"

White House Press Secretary
James C. Hagerly told newsmen
yesterday the Talbott-Mulligan
matter had been called to Eisenhower's attention, "but he has not
had a complete report as yet."

In a dispatch from Washington,
the Chattanooga Times quoted an
unnamed White House official as
saying, "I don't think that the President is going to play around
with this one." It added that policy-making forces in the admin-
in opposition to Talbott's continuance in office.

The Senate subcommittee is inquiring into the propriety of Tal-
bott's partnership in the Mulligan
firm, which has as clients some
companies with government contracts. Talbott has said his "clean"
and "proper" agreement calls for
a 50-50 split of profits with Mulligan after the latter draws a salary of $25,000 a year. Talbott also said he would decline profits
from the firm's dealings with any company "predominantly" in-
gaged in government work.

Mulligan testified yesterday Tal-
bott has received $132,032 from
the firm since becoming secretary
of the Air Force — a post which

Sam Ewing, an RCA attorney,
testified he received a telephone
call about last Jan. 4 in which,
he said, both Talbott and Johnson
tried to talk RCA out of a belief
that it should not make a new contract with the Mulligan firm
while Talbott was its partner and
a Pentagon official.

He quoted Johnson as saying
"he was prepared to write a legal
opinion to RCA saying there was no objection to this contract being
entered into."

RED CHINA MUST

WASHINGTON (P) — The United States was described today as
ready to discuss a number of Far East problems directly with Communist China if the Reds agree to free 51 or so American citizens.

U.S. officials said Red China's attitude toward this long-standing
American demand would determine the scope of the special conference which, it was announced yesterday, will begin next Monday
in Geneva.

If the Chinese Reds refuse to release 11 American airmen and
be no point in talking about other tensions, such as a Formosa cease-fire.

Sen. George (D-Ga.) chairman
of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said in a separate interview the talks may help clear
the air for a future conference on
other matters with Red China, perhaps on the foreign ministers' level.

Peking radio proposed yesterday that the fate of Nationalist-held Formosa and Red China's admission to the United Nations
"be settled through consultation
among the countries concerned."

George said Dulles made it clear at a closed meeting of the Foreign Relations Committee yesterday there would be at the discussions "involving any third party — in this case, Nationalist China."

On Formosa, the Nationalists
maintained official silence.
Noncongressional informants said
the Geneva talks will not seek to chart an over-all Far East settlement but will concentrate on what
are regarded as issues between the two countries. Nationalist China, therefore, would not be directly involved.

This formula would bar any agreement on the future of Formosa. Such items as the Western
trade blockade of the Chinese
mainland and Red China's aid to Red forces in Indochina and Korea could be introduced.

Add a little nutmeg to the dipping
liquid for French toast. Serve with panfried peaches (fresh or canned)
and crisp bacon for brunch.

TWO SLAYERS OF CHILDREN DIE AT ROCKVIEW

BELLEFONTE, Pa., (P) — Two men convicted of slaying children died five minutes apart last night in the electric chair at Rockview State Penitentiary.

First to die was Patrick Lance, 30-year-old steelworker from Big Bend Twp. Charley with slaying his wife, a 9-year-old stepson and an 11-year-old stepdaughter, he was tried only for the boy's shooting.

Elijah Thompson, Jr., 22, an unemployed laborer, was executed for the fatal beating and stabbing of his neighbor, Helen Jean Bryant, 16, last October. Her body was found in a shallow grave near her Alliquippa home five days after she disappeared.

2nd Double Execution
It was the second double execution at Rockview in three months. On April 25, Grover Cleveland Edwards, 36, Chester, and Benjamin Robinson, also 36, Philadelphia, were put to death for killing elderly robbery victims.

The Beaver County men were the fourth and fifth to die in the state's electric chair this year and the 339th and 340th to pay the supreme penalty in Pennsylvania. Lance was pronounced dead at 9:04 p.m. (EST), just two minutes after he was strapped into the chair.

Thompson was pronounced dead at 9:09 p.m. (EST), also two minutes after executioner Jerry Kremer, Pittsburgh, sent the 2,000-volt charge into the chair.

Led In Separately
Both men were led to the death chamber separately, each accompanied by three guards, one on each side and another to the rear.

Neither expressed any emotion as he was strapped into the chair. They were the first to be executed under the new procedure which changed the scheduled times of executions from 12:30 a.m. (EST) to 9 p.m. (EST) on Mondays. The 12:30 time was used for 21 years.

Lance was convicted of first-degree murder in the slaying of his 9-year-old stepson, Clyde Hoffman. He was also charged with the slaying of his 37-year-old wife, Agnes, and his stepdaughter, Agnes Hoffman.

One Pleaded Guilty
A jury of nine women and three men convicted Lance of first-degree murder of his stepson in his home near Beaver Falls on June 11, 1954. All three had been shot to death with a .22 caliber rifle. Neighbors told police they heard the shots and saw Lance ride away on a motorcycle. He was captured the next day at New Bethlehem. Lance testified at his trial that

ARREST AWAITS 3 TURNCOATS ON WEST COAST

WASHINGTON (P) — Immediate arrest aboard ship at San Francisco and court-martial later await three young American turncoats coming home from Red China.

Pentagon officials said yesterday Army officers will board their ship, a passenger liner, when it docks at San Francisco next Friday and make the arrests there.

The three are William C. Cowart, 22, Dalton, Ga.; Lewis W. Griggs, 22, Jacksonville, Tex.; and Otho G. Bell, 24, Hillsboro, Miss., and Olympia, Wash.

Willing To Pay
At Hong Kong earlier this month, all three said they were willing to serve time in American prisons if necessary to pay for their "mistakes." The Pentagon said they will be held on various charges including aiding the enemy and misconduct as prisoners. The Army will emphasize that the arrests have nothing to do with the fact that the three originally refused to come home. The Army bases its case on information from other former American prisoners.

The men will be told they may see any members of their families who are in San Francisco to meet them. But they cannot go home with their families.

CALLS DRAPER AFFAIR CLOSED

HARRISBURG (P) — Sen. Hays (D-Centre) says that as far as he is concerned the cancellation of an appearance by dancer Paul Draper at Pennsylvania State University is a closed matter.

"That particular incident itself is closed," Hays said yesterday, "although the principle involved remains undecided."

Hays said that he was unable to see state Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen, on the matter yesterday, but added he intended to see him later this week.

Adrian A. Morse, university provost, cancelled the Draper appearance, scheduled for last Tuesday, because he felt some supporters of the university might object to the appearance.

Hays explained that he was "not critical of the administration" but "of the framework under which they operate. Personally I am not in agreement with the concept involved."

The Centre County senator said he understood "Draper is satisfied as far as legal matters go."

He didn't remember the shootings and that he didn't recall signing a statement in which he admitted the shootings during a quarrel.

Thompson pleaded guilty to the slaying of Miss Bryant.

The Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals required 4 hours and 39 minutes to play 14 innings on April 16.

COURT BLOCKS SALE OF FARM

YORK, Pa. (P) — The York County Court has continued an equity suit to prevent John Franklin Huber, sentenced blackmailer, from disposing of a 6½-acre chicken farm at York R. 7.

Common Pleas Court Judge Walter I. Anderson yesterday continued the injunction suit until a final hearing on the merits of the case is held, possibly during the October term of court. No reason was given for the action agreed to by counsel.

The suit was filed by Darmstatter's Inc., a Lancaster electric appliance firm, against Huber and his present wife. Huber's former wife admitted embezzling $100,000 in "hush" money to pay Huber. He was recently sentenced to 8 to 10 years in prison on a blackmail charge.

Store officials said they believe some of the money embezzled from the store was used to purchase the farm.

HOUSE VOTES ON INCOME TAX MEASURE TODAY

HARRISBURG (P) — A sick Philadelphia Democratic legislator left his hospital today for the House chamber to vote for Gov. Leader's classified income tax bill.

David V. Randall, executive secretary to the governor, said that Rep. McKeever was being driven by automobile to Harrisburg from Philadelphia to be present at the expected late afternoon roll call on the 411 million dollar tax bill.

Only yesterday McKeever was given an official leave of absence because of illness. His wife said then he was too sick to come here for the crucial vote.

Asked if McKeever's vote would assure the outcome, Randall said "I would say so."

HARRISBURG (P) — A giant question mark hovered over a House showdown today on Gov. Leader's 41 million dollar classified income tax plan.

Both backers and opponents of the controversial levy predicted victory in advance of an expected afternoon vote on the tax measure. Less than a handful of votes held the key to passage or defeat of the measure.

Rep. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, renewed his forecast that the administration will have the necessary 106 votes to pass the bill.

He called for a noon caucus to count supporters among 111 House Democrats. The 112th member of the delegation, Rep. McKeever (D-Phila.), is hospitalized with an illness.

Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) made an implicit threat from the rostrum last night that state police will be used to round up lawmakers who may try to duck the session.

The House Democratic leadership, after a five-hour party caucus last night, put off count until today. The move was described by opponents as a sign the necessary votes were lacking.

"The time was not right enough

Bank Closes With $678,000 Shortage

TWENTY-NINE PALMS, Calif. (AP) — A $678,000 shortage has shut down this Mojave Desert town's only bank and its vice president-cashier, who also is a race horse owner, is under arrest on an embezzlement charge.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Ray H. Kinnison said an audit disclosed the shortage at the Joshua National bank, a seven-year-old institution serving 3,200 residents of this community and a nearby Marine Corps training camp.

The bank official, Roscoe D. Coon, 46, was arrested yesterday by FBI agents at his Del Mar race track stable in San Diego County. He was specifically charged with embezzling $10,000 of the missing $678,000.

to count them," said Readinger when newsmen asked for an explanation of the postponement.

"They didn't get to first base (in lining up enough votes)."

Andrews pointed out the tense situation in the House with a warning to representatives "If the Democratic caucus so directs" today, "steps will be taken to require attendance of members absent without leave."

IS PRESSING FOR NEW BRIDGE SITE

HARRISBURG (P) — Sen. Watkins (R-Delaware) pressed today for construction of a Delaware River bridge or tunnel at a Delaware County site before replacement of the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge at northeast Philadelphia.

Watkins disclosed that he had helped block passage of the Tacony span bill in the Senate. The measure went back to the Highways Committee for further study.

Replacement of the Tacony bridge by a higher level span was proposed to relieve automobile traffic jams at rush hours when the drawbridge is opened to permit passage of river traffic.

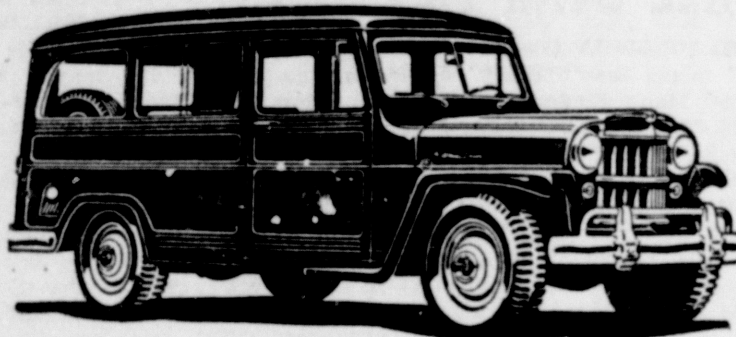

Says Chester Needs It
Proponents of a new bridge declare the old one is outmoded because in the 1920's when it was built there was no anticipation of construction of such a plant as the Fairless steel works to the north and its attendant river traffic.

Watkins, however, noted that Philadelphia already has one new bridge over the Delaware under construction at South Philadelphia. The city of Chester, he said, could use a new bridge or tunnel to New Jersey to carry traffic from the west over U. S. 322. The present ferry line then could be abandoned.

TWO SLAYERS OF CHILDREN DIE AT ROCKVIEW

BELLEfonte, Pa., 18 — Two men convicted of slaying children died five minutes apart last night in the electric chair at Rockview State Penitentiary.

First to die was Patrick Lance, 30-year-old steelworker from Big Bend Twp. Charley with slaying his wife, a 9-year-old stepson and an 11-year-old stepdaughter, he was tried only for the boy's shooting.

Elijah Thompson, Jr., 22, an unemployed laborer, was executed for the fatal beating and stabbing of his neighbor, Helen Jean Bryant, 16, last October. Her body was found in a shallow grave near her Alliquippa home five days after she disappeared.

2nd Double Execution It was the second double execution at Rockview in three months. On April 25, Grover Cleveland Edwards, 36, Chester, and Benjamin Robinson, also 36, Philadelphia, were put to death for killing elderly robbery victims.

The Beaver County men were the fourth and fifth to die in the state's electric chair this year and the 339th and 340th to pay the supreme penalty in Pennsylvania. Lance was pronounced dead at 9:04 p.m. (EST), just two minutes after he was strapped into the chair.

Thompson was pronounced dead at 9:09 p.m. (EST), also two minutes after executioner Jerry Krenmer, Pittsburgh, sent the 2,000-volt charge into the chair.

Led In Separately Both men were led to the death chamber separately, each accompanied by three guards, one on each side and another to the rear.

Neither expressed any emotion as he was strapped into the chair. They were the first to be executed under the new procedure which changed the scheduled times of executions from 12:30 a.m. (EST) to 9 p.m. (EST) on Mondays. The 12:30 time was used for 21 years.

Lance was convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of his 9-year-old stepson, Clyde Hoffman. He was also charged with the slaying of his 37-year-old wife, Agnes, and his stepdaughter, Agnes Hoffman.

One Pleaded Guilty A jury of nine women and three men convicted Lance of first degree murder of his stepson in his home near Beaver Falls on June 11, 1954. All three had been shot to death with a .22 caliber rifle.

Neighbors told police they heard the shots and saw Lance ride away on a motorcycle. He was captured the next day at New Bethlehem.

Lance testified at his trial that

ARREST AWAITS 3 TURNCOATS ON WEST COAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Immediate arrest aboard ship at San Francisco and court-martial later await three young American turncoats coming home from Red China.

Pentagon officials said yesterday Army officers will board their ship, a passenger liner, when it docks at San Francisco next Friday and make the arrests there. The three are William C. Cowart, 22, Dalton, Ga.; Lewis W. Griggs, 22, Jacksonville, Tex.; and Otto G. Bell, 24, Hillsboro, Miss., and Olympia, Wash.

Captured during the Korean War, they refused repatriation in 1953 and decided instead to go to Red China with 18 other Allied soldiers. After a year and a half there the returning trio persuaded the Chinese to let them come home.

Willing To Pay At Hong Kong earlier this month, all three said they were willing to serve time in American prisons if necessary to pay for their "mistakes."

The Pentagon said they will be held on various charges including aiding the enemy and misconduct as prisoners. The Army will emphasize that the arrests have nothing to do with the fact that the three originally refused to come home. The Army bases its case on information from other former American prisoners.

The men will be told they may see any members of their families who are in San Francisco to meet them. But they cannot go home with their families.

COURT BLOCKS SALE OF FARM

YORK, Pa. (AP)—The York County Court has continued an equity suit to prevent John Franklin Huber, sentenced blackmailer, from disposing of a 6½-acre chicken farm at York R. 7.

Common Pleas Court Judge Walter I. Anderson yesterday continued the injunction suit until a final hearing on the merits of the case is held, possibly during the October term of court. No reason was given for the action agreed to by counsel.

The suit was filed by Darmstadter's Inc., a Lancaster electric appliance firm, against Huber and his present wife. Huber's former wife admitted embezzling $100,000 in "husband" money to pay Huber. He was recently sentenced to 8 to 10 years in prison on a blackmail charge.

Store officials said they believe some of the money embezzled from the store was used to purchase the farm.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A sick Philadelphia Democratic legislator left his hospital today for the House chamber to vote for Gov. Leader's classified income tax bill.

David V. Randall, executive secretary to the governor, said that Rep. McKeever was being driven by automobile to Harrisburg from Philadelphia to be present at the expected late afternoon roll call on the 411 million dollar tax bill.

Only yesterday McKeever was given an official leave of absence because of illness. His wife said then he was too sick to come here for the crucial vote.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A giant question mark hovered over a House showdown today on Gov. Leader's 411 million dollar classified income tax plan.

Both backers and opponents of the controversial levy predicted victory in advance of an expected afternoon vote on the tax measure. Less than a handful of votes held the key to passage or defeat of the measure.

Rep. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, renewed his forecast that the administration will have the necessary 106 votes to pass the bill.

He called for a noon caucus to count supporters among 111 House Democrats. The 112th member of the delegation, Rep. McKeever (D-Phila.), is hospitalized with an illness.

Speaker Andrews (D-Cambria) made an implied threat from the rostrum last night that state police will be used to round up lawmakers who may try to duck the session.

The House Democratic leadership, after a five-hour party caucus last night, put off count until today. The move was described by opponents as a sign the necessary votes were lacking.

Bank Closes With $678,000 Shortage

TWENTY-NINE PALMS, Calif. (AP)—A $678,000 shortage has shut down this Mojave Desert town's only bank and its vice president-cashier, who also is a race horse owner, is under arrest on an embezzlement charge.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Ray H. Kinnison said an audit disclosed the shortage at the Joshua National bank, a seven-year-old institution serving 3,200 residents of this community and a nearby Marine Corps training camp.

Th bank official, Roscoe D. Coon, 46, was arrested yesterday by FBI agents at his Del Mar race track stable in San Diego County. He was specifically charged with embezzling $678,000 of the missing $678,000.

to count them," said Readinger when newsmen asked for an explanation of the postponement.

But Rep. Anderson (D-Allegheny), one of the leading critics of the income tax proposal, had his own explanation as to why a roll call wasn't taken in caucus: "They didn't get to first base (in lining up enough votes)."

Andrews pointed up the tense situation in the House with a warning to representatives "If the Democratic caucus so directs" today, "steps will be taken to require attendance of members absent without leave."

IS PRESSING FOR NEW BRIDGE SITE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Watkins (R-Delaware) pressed today for construction of a Delaware River bridge or tunnel at a Delaware County site before replacement of the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge at northeast Philadelphia.

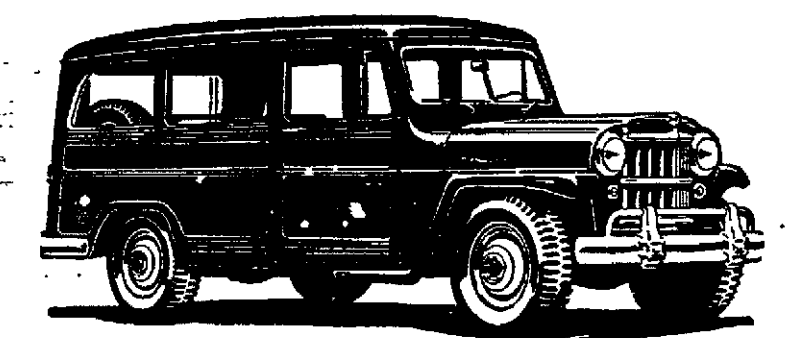

Watkins disclosed that he had helped block passage of the Tacony span bill in the Senate. The measure went back to the Highways Committee for further study.

Replacement of the Tacony bridge by a higher level span was proposed to relieve automobile traffic jams at rush hours when the drawbridge is opened to permit passage of river traffic.

Says Chester Needs It Proponents of a new bridge declare the old one is outmoded because in the 1920's when it was built there was no anticipation of construction of such a plant as the Fairless steel works to the north and its attendant river traffic.

Watkins, however, noted that Philadelphia already has one new bridge over the Delaware under construction at South Philadelphia. The city of Chester, he said, could use a new bridge or tunnel to New Jersey to carry traffic from the west over U. S. 322. The present ferry line then could be abandoned.
